Caregiving and Pertinent Legal Matters

GLENDALÉ, Ariz. – Chronic illness can take a toll on the caregiver as well as the patient. Often, in taking care of loved ones, caregivers neglect to take care of themselves.

“Caregiving and Getting Your Legal Affairs in Order” will be held at 7 p.m. on Monday, July 17 in the auditorium of Glendale Public Library, 5959 W. Brown St. Rachel Guerreto of the Area Agency on Aging and Tammy Jo Granado of JacksonWhite Elder Law team up to offer vital information on caregiving. These facts include legal matters, which left unattended, can cause havoc when the loved one dies. Emphasis is on patients with Parkinson’s Disease, but the information is applicable to all chronic diseases.

No registration is required for this free program. Call 623-930-3553 for more information.
